For thirty years the attorneys of Koonz, McKenney, Johnson, DePaolis and Lightfoot, L.L.P. have successfully obtained substantial monetary compensation on behalf of individuals who have been injured or killed due to the negligence or wrongdoing of others. The firm is one of the largest, most experienced, and most respected plaintiff's personal-injury firms in the region. Four of the firm's attorneys have been selected as Top Lawyers by Washingtonian magazine, five have been chosen by their peers for inclusion in Washington D.C. Super Lawyers, and five have been selected for inclusion in Best Lawyers in America.

Koonz McKenney represents people who have been injured due to motor-vehicle crashes, construction-site and other job-related accidents, malpractice by hospitals and doctors, asbestos and other defective products, and others' carelessness. The firm specializes in handling cases involving catastrophic injuries such as burns, brain injuries, and spinal-cord injuries. Through skillful lawyering and use of a team approach, the firm has helped its clients to achieve the financial security they need to resume their lives after injury or a loved one's death.

Koonz McKenney has the talent, experience, and resources to fight – and win – against insurance companies and large corporate and government defendants. The firm's attorneys possess the depth of expertise to prepare cases thoroughly, litigate them through trial, and prevail on appeal as to difficult issues of law.

Koonz McKenney's efforts have made our community a safer place to live. The firm's successful cases have, for example, improved safety in playgrounds, medical procedures, household products, tap water, subway and bus transportation, and construction sites.

Attorneys in the firm adhere to high professional and ethical standards. They hold positions of leadership in many legal organizations and often teach law to lawyers. The firm's legacy of excellence motivates every attorney to give personal attention to each client.
